

Academic Interventionist - Job Description

A. Purpose

Living Stones Academy is seeking an Academic Interventionist who:

- Is enthusiastic about Christ-centered education.
- Has a passion for working with young children from diverse backgrounds.
- Serves to assist the Educational Support Service team in meeting the needs of students, primarily in the areas of mathematics and language arts.
- Will report to the Support Services Director

B. Job Responsibilities and Requirements

Bachelor's degree in Education or related field required. Must have experience working with children. This individual must exhibit a genuine, nurturing, caring attitude to all.

Responsibilities:

1. Assist the Support Services Director in maintaining a safe learning environment and ensuring the well-being and safety of the children in his/her care.
2. Assist in the implementation of Intervention/Accommodation Plans for students and monitor their progress. This includes but is not limited to small group/push-in math or language arts support.
3. Provide support for individual or small groups of students inside and outside the classroom to enable them to fully participate in activities.
4. Monitor or lead a class as directed by the Support Services Director and/or general education teacher.
5. Record and report student progress to the Support Services Director.
6. Participate in any student meetings requested by the Support Services Director or Head of School.
7. Attend training opportunities as recommended by the Support Services Director or Head of School.

Requirements:

1. Model Christ-like behavior.
2. Demonstrate ethical behavior.
3. Communicate effectively, both orally and in writing.
4. Able to maintain confidentiality.
5. Interact with children, including bending, kneeling, sitting on the floor, lifting up to 50 pounds, climbing, and walking.
6. Maintain a calm demeanor when interacting with students with behavioral challenges.

C. Job Classification and Compensation

This is a full-time position during the academic year. Wage will be determined annually.